

On modeling torsion of a bar with multi-connected profile

Jan Franců, Petra Nováčková

Institute of Mathematics, Brno University of Technology, Czech Republic francu@fme.vutbr.cz

Modeling of torsion of a bar leads to a boundary value problem for the Poisson equation. The contribution deals with the problem of the constant boundary conditions on separated parts of the boundary of the multi-connected domain. Particular examples are included.